An Alberta Nonprofit Network

ABNN Network Anatomy

Since January 2018, a group of individuals and organizations committed to exploring the idea of an ABNN have been meeting regularly to discuss and lead its development. To date, the group – named the “Exploration Committee” - has outlined the following high-level (and continuously evolving!) ‘network anatomy’, based on information gathered at a gathering of sector colleagues on June 8th, 2018.

This image shows the functional components of ABNN: the responsibilities at the core of the Network, held by the Exploration Committee; as well as the functional linkages to other parts of the nonprofit ecosystem.

This image is not intended to be all-encompassing or comprehensive, but rather a high-level view to inform and guide orientation, discussion, engagement re: ABNN.
